News Release

We're Moving! The Kern County Library's Northeast Branch is Relocating

The Kern County Library is excited to announce that the Northeast Branch Library is relocating! The Northeast Branch Library has been in its current location at 3725 Columbus Street in Northeast Bakersfield since 1994. The new Northeast Branch location will be in the vibrant East Hills Village shopping complex on 2671 Oswell Street, Suite B, Bakersfield, CA.

Mike Maggard, Kern County Supervisor of the 3rd District, said, "While moving is never fun, we have a wonderful opportunity to sustain and improve the delivery of Library services to the residents of the Northeast. I hope the public enjoys the new and improved location."

Andie Apple, Interim Director of the Kern County Library, commented, "We are looking forward to serving the Northeast residents in the new location at a bustling shopping center. We plan to expand early learning, children's, and teen programming, more computers will be available to our customers, and we are really excited about the potential this location has for future business partnerships."

The current Northeast Branch will be closed June 1 – 30, 2017.

The Library will reopen to the public in its new location on Saturday, July 1st, 2017, just in time for Summer Reading events!
