Volunteer Orientation

Ages 16+ SATURDAY, OCTOBER 5 | 1:00 P.M.

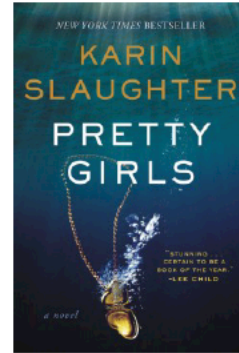

During this session, we'll go over everything you need to know about becoming a volunteer. We'll discuss commitment required as well as the variety of tasks you'll help with. This is a great opportunity to give back to the community, develop new skills, and work alongside our wonderful library staff.

Free Narcan EVERYDAY

The Library is proud to join efforts championed by the California Department of Health Care Services in becoming a naloxone (also known as brand Narcan) distributing organization by providing free Narcan to residents at our libraries throughout Kern County

Staff Picks

Daniela

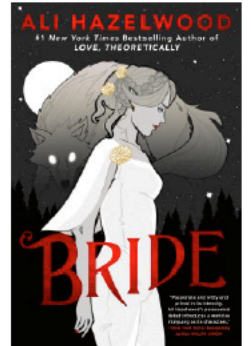

Pretty Girls, by Karin Slaughter

Sisters Lydia and Claire haven't spoken in over twenty years. After the disappearance of their nineteen-year-old sister, Julia, their family essentially fell apart. Now, twenty years later, another teenage girl has vanished, and days later, Claire's husband is murdered on the street. Little do the sisters know, these two events are connected. Before Lydia and Claire even realize it's happening they begin uncovering dark secrets that are connected to their family's past and the horrific truth of their sister's disappearance.

Yajaira

Bride, by Ali Hazelwood

Misery Lark, the only daughter of the most powerful Vampyre councilman of the Southwest, is an outcast—again. Her days of living in anonymity among the Humans are over: she has been called upon to uphold a historic peacekeeping alliance between the Vampyres and their mortal enemies, the Weres, and she sees little choice but to surrender herself in the exchange—again...

Diana

Abraham Lincoln Vampire Hunter by Seth Grahme-Smith

This novel combines historical fiction with supernatural elements. The story reimagines the life of Abraham Lincoln, portraying him as a secret vampire hunter. Blending historical facts with fiction, the book offers a thrilling twist on Lincoln's legacy, presenting him as a hero battling dark forces to shape the course of history.

Evelyn

Wuthering Heights by Emily Bronte

This gothic novel is set on the windy moors of Yorkshire and depicts the tragic and ill-fated love between Catherine Earnshaw and her father's adopted son, Heathcliff. Its plot explores the destructive effects of obsession, revenge, and unfulfilled love.
