Resources for Students Success

Check out all the FREE online resources Kern County Library has to offer students of all ages! Some resources are only accessible with a Kern County Library card

Britannica

Britannica School

Learn more about any subject – for all grades and all reading abilities – offering thousands of up to date, curated, and curriculum-relevant articles, images, videos, audio clips, primary sources, maps, research tools, recommended websites, and three separate databases (Elementary, Middle, or High).

ProQuest eLibrary

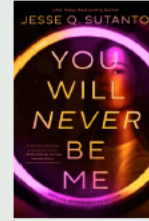

The ProQuest eLibrary simplifies the research process, making it easier for researchers to select their topics and get connected with scholarly information. Includes more than 11,000+ editor-created Research Topics on a vast array of people, places, historical events and eras, literary genres, current events, broad curricular themes, and much more.

Typing Club

TypingClub helps students build essential skills both inside and outside the classroom. With engaging lessons and instant feedback, students can improve typing, expand vocabulary, master digital literacy, and develop social-emotional skills. This platform is designed to be familiar and fun, fostering critical thinking and productivity. As an ISTE Seal of Alignment recipient, TypingClub provides comprehensive tools for educators to track progress and customize learning experiences.

Book Recommendations

You Will Never Be Me by Jesse Q Sutanto

A suspense novel about the dark sides of social media and influencer culture. Meredith Lee showed Aspen Palmer how to find success on social media, but Aspen ditched her as soon as she made it big.

Guide Me Home by Attica Locke

In this stunning culmination of the award-winning Highway 59 trilogy, Detective Darren Mathews is pulled out of an early retirement to investigate the case of a missing black college student from an all-white sorority and soon finds a town that will stop at nothing to keep its secrets hidden.

Such Charming Liars by Karen M. McManus

The newest mystery from the author One of Us Is Lying, the Queen of thrillers, Karen M. McManus! When mother-daughter grifters set out on their final job, the heist gets deadly and dangerously personal.

Death at Morning House by Maureen Johnson

A new stand-alone YA about a teen who uncovers a mystery while working as a tour guide on an island and must solve it before history repeats itself.

Supper & Snacks in the Stacks is back!

In partnership with the Kern County Superintendent of Schools, the Kern County Library is offering FREE meals & a space to do homework for ages 2-18.
