Diana

What Light
Jay Asher

Sierra's family runs a Christmas tree farm in Oregon—it's an idyllic setting for a girl to grow up in, except that every year, they pack up and move to California to set up their Christmas tree lot for the season. Sierra lives two lives: her life in Oregon and her life at Christmas. And leaving one always means missing the other. WHAT LIGHT is a sweet, aching tale of first love and forgiveness. It's about second chances and learning to see others for who they really are.

I'm Dreaming of a Wyatt Christmas
Tiffany Schmidt

Noelle lives for Christmas. Since her mother's death, she and her father have always made a point of making her favorite holiday extra special. But this year is different; her dad barely notices her, and when he nearly misses all of her Nutcracker performances, Noelle decides to accept a babysitting job that will take her to Vermont for the entirety of winter break. Incredibly, instead of insisting she stay home, her father enthusiastically agrees to this plan. Noelle heads out to spend Christmas on the ski slopes, away from all of her favorite traditions. When the dreamy older half-brother of her babysitting charges shows up at the family ski cabin, though, will all of Noelle's dancing fantasies come true, or is she in over her head?
