Staff Picks

Daniela

First Time Caller by B.K. Borison

Radio host Aiden Valentine has lost faith in love—a problem for someone running Baltimore's romance hotline. But when a young girl's call about her mom, Lucie Stone, goes viral, both are thrust into the spotlight. Lucie, content with her life, suddenly questions if romance is missing. As the city watches her love story unfold, she must choose between a staged happily-ever-after or the unexpected sparks with Aiden himself.

Yajaira

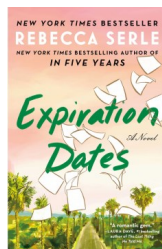

A Man Called Ove by Fredrick Beckman

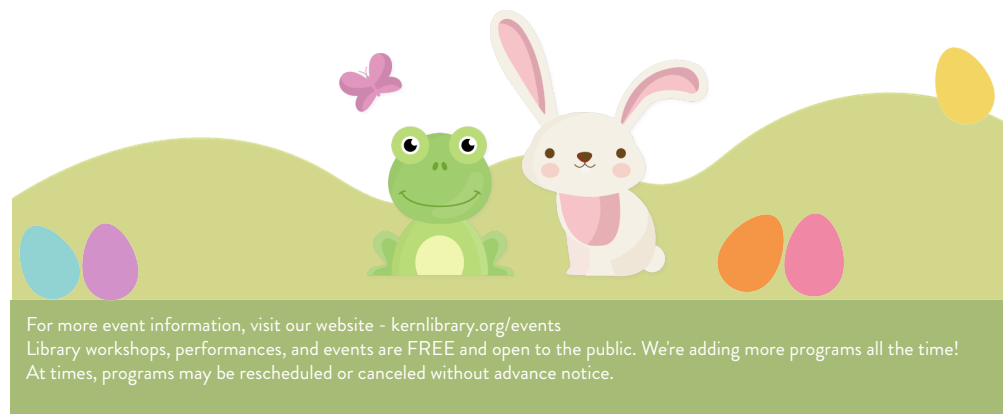

A grumpy, elderly widower named Ove appears outwardly bitter and set in his ways, but underneath harbors a deep sadness due to the loss of his beloved wife, leading him to find unexpected connections and warmth with the new, chaotic family who moves in next door, despite his initial resistance.

Diana

Expiration Dates by Rebecca Serle

Daphne Bell has always received mysterious slips of paper predicting how long each relationship will last—until one finally arrives with just a name: Jake. As their romance unfolds, she questions fate, commitment, and the secret she's keeping—one that could change everything.
