Test Your Luck with These Titles

Mary Anne's Bad-luck Mystery (2021) by Ann M. Martin

After tossing aside a chain letter, Mary Anne finds herself caught in a streak of strange mishaps—along with a chilling note ordering her to meet at midnight at Old Man Sutcliff's grave. As the bad luck builds, she begins to wonder if ignoring the letter was a mistake.

The Clover Curse (2016) by Poppy Green

While painting in the clover patch, Sophie Mouse finds a rare four-leaf clover and expects a little extra luck. But when a series of mishaps follows, she starts to wonder if this lucky find might be bringing more surprises than she imagined.

La mala suerte me sigue (2024) by Ana Siquiera

En este divertido libro ilustrado sobre las supersticiones, ¿podrá Miguel aprender a crear su propia suerte y librarse de la mala suerte antes de que sea demasiado tarde?

Miguel's grandmother warns him that opening an umbrella inside the house will bring bad luck that will follow him everywhere.

Diary of a Wimpy Kid. Hard Luck (2013) by Jeff Kinney

Greg Heffley is stuck on a serious losing streak. With his best friend Rowley moving on and middle school feeling tougher than ever, Greg decides to let fate take the wheel and leaves his choices up to chance. But will a roll of the dice turn things around, or just make his life even more unpredictable?

A Headstart on Reading

1,000 Books Before Kindergarten encourages families to build early literacy skills by reading together from birth to age five. Children track each book they read and work toward the goal of 1,000 books before starting kindergarten. Reading can include storytime favorites, bedtime books, and even repeat reads—every book counts. Sign up on the bookmobile to get started and help set the foundation for a lifelong love of reading!
