KERN COUNTY LIBRARY

Events for Adults

Special Events

Zine Scene- Adult Edition

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 3RD | 4:00 PM - 6:00PM

Cut, paste, and publish your voice at our Adult Zine Scene! Flip through magazines, collage your ideas, and use our manual booklet stapler to create your very own mini zine.

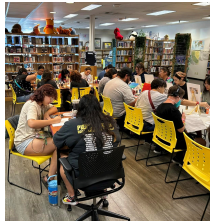

Creative Writing

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 10TH | 4:00 PM - 5:00PM

Participants will explore expression through engaging prompts, discussion, and guided writing activities in a welcoming and supportive environment.

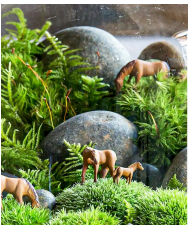

Annual Emo Paint Night

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 17TH at 4:00 PM-6:00PM

Emo Paint Night returns to NE! Join us for an evening of moody colors, expressive art, and a little dramatic flair. Paint stormy skies, song-inspired scenes, or whatever your beautifully brooding heart desires.

Terrarium Stories

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 24TH at 4:00-6:00 PM

Create your own terrarium story! We will show you how to layer and add in seeds. Use simple materials to build and decorate a tiny world that adds a little story and imagination your new terrarium.

Mariachi Aguilas de Bakersfield

Tuesday, June 9th | 12:30 PM to 1:30PM

Join us for an unforgettable musical experience at the library as we welcome the talented Mariachi Aguilas de Bakersfield! This vibrant and energetic mariachi band will captivate you with their stunning musicianship and colorful performances of traditional Mexican music. Whether you're a longtime mariachi fan or new to this genre, you'll be swept away by their lively songs and rich cultural heritage.

The Musical Performance by Baka Few

Saturday, June 27th at 2PM

Looking for something a little different? Northeast is hosting a tour stop for The Baka Few, an alternative/emo band out of Arvin, California. Led by Rey Moreno, their music blends heartfelt energy with dreamy soundscapes. Drop in, enjoy the vibe, and support local talent doing big things!
