New Reads for the Summer!

The House Next Door (2026) by Ellen Oh

In this story, Rory Parker is determined to protect his new neighbors from the dangers of the haunted house next door. After witnessing strange shadows, ghostly encounters, and the loss of a friend to the house's dark forces, Rory joins with his new friend Jack--and some helpful spirits--to confront the evil within.

Moonlight Murder (2026) by Uzma Jalaluddin

This story follows Kausar Khan, a grandmother in Toronto who becomes involved in solving the murder of a young man connected to her family. As she investigates, the case begins to mirror the unresolved death of her own son decades earlier, leading her to uncover hidden connections, seek justice, and confront long-buried grief while searching for closure for both families.

Now I See Summer (2026) by Mac Barnett & Jon Klassen

In summer, the tree has full green leaves, the sky is blue, a sweet treat is ice cream and the perfect hat shades you from the sun. Now I See Summer celebrates all the wonderful things about the season through a child's eyes - and shows why it's their favorite time of year.
